Just a note to ask KAZV continue broadcast by charter com, past the March 1 deadline now in place.

I've been on the morning show to promote significant local art events this past year for September's Art in the Garden first time event, with the Central California Art Association nonprofit Mistlin Gallery, a fundraising event most needed by the gallery to continue operations, and most recently for the Stanislaus County Travel and Tourism Regional Round Table sponsored, Stanislaus Artists Open Studio Tour, in its second year, which focuses on showcasing local artists througout Stanislaus County, and the gateway communities of Manteca, Ripon and Escalon of Southern San Joaquin County.

These two events, one by art organization nonprofit, the other a nonprofit initiative of a county wide collaboration, included several hundred people in attendance each, and more than 100 volunteers in each project, that faciliated a part of its local media and community contact information, via Channel 14, KAZV.
